

Submission to Code Review

In my opinion the county needs a Royal Commission into the regular and frequent scandals into the current Australian Banking Industry.

Banks in Australia have completely lost the faith of the public. The Australian nation has supported these institutions in recent times of economic uncertainty and been repaid with scorn and derision by them.

The current industry codes of conduct are not working in the nation's interest and the entire Industry needs to be restructured from the top.

B. Steele

Dee Why, NSW